NEW STREET
WILL CONNECT
WITH MAIN*COMMISSIONERS AND MERCHANTS WILL PURCHASE
WILLIAMS BUILDING

The board of county commissioners this morning partially agreed to purchase the building and lot on Main street formerly occupied by the livery firm of Williams & Traber. The building is south of the Tonopah and Goldfield Meat market. The lot has a frontage of 35 feet and is 100 feet in depth.

There has been a move on foot for some time to have the town purchase this location for the purpose of removing the building and using the site as a street, connecting Main and St. Patrick streets. It is understood that the commissioners will pay $500 for the location while the merchants in that immediate neighborhood will donate an equal sum. The building has not been occupied in years, and every time a rain storm visits the city, the course of the waters is directly through the building on to Main street.

ELECTRICIAN AT BELMONT MINE MAY
LOSE EYESIGHT*E. P. CULLINAN BLINDED BY FLASH OF ELECTRICITY

E. P. Cullinan, chief electrician of the Belmont mine, while engaged in his duties this morning, was severely burned about the eyes by an electric flash. Mr. Cullinan was hurried to the Miners' Union hospital and Dr. Clark was summoned and dressed the injuries. Dr. Clark stated, after making an examination of the burn, that it would be some little time before the extent would be known. Cullinan was temporarily blinded by the flash and it is possible that he will lose his eyesight altogether. His eyes were bandaged in order to exclude all light and the subsequent developments will determine whether he will recover his sight.

Cullinan has been with the Belmont for some time and is an experienced electrician. He was with Superintendent Bradshaw in Mexico and came to Tonopah when Mr. Bradshaw assumed charge of the Belmont. He is married but his wife is visiting in the east at the present time.

CUPID TAKES PART IN REGULAR
BOXING MATCH*FIVE ROUND GO WILL BE PRESENTED AT BUTLER THEATRE TONIGHT

The program of the Butler theatre for today is well balanced with comedy and drama. "A Change of Heart" is a comedy which discloses with commendable frankness what may happen when a couple incur a change of heart in an unexpected way. "Won in the Fifth" is another comedy in which there is portrayed a boxing bout. Of course to make it more interesting Cupid takes a hand in the affair and the result is very fascinating. "A Summer Idyll" is another of those feature Biograph dramas that never fail to draw a crowd to the popular little playhouse. It is a picture that is different, so different that one is disposed to rub one's eyes to see if the scene writer has actually dared to give a picture a new ending. Here is a city man who goes to the country and falls in love with a pretty country girl, but the lure of the city is too much for him and he goes back to his former sweetheart, leaving the country shepherdess to fill her grandfather's pipe and chase her sheep across the bridge as of yore.

Tomorrow's program is also one that deserves special mention in that it also contains a Biograph feature, an Essanay ranch life story and a comedy.

WILL BUILD ON LOT ABOVE
PALACE HOTEL*W. O. DRESSER WILL ERECT
BUILDING FOR HIS FURNITURE STORE

W. O. Dresser, the local furniture dealer, is now making arrangements for the construction of a large building on upper Main street, just above the Palace hotel, which when completed, he will use as his place of business. The building will be 100x30. Mr. Dresser purchased the lot some time ago.

He has a large stock of furniture on hand and in addition received yesterday two carloads direct from the factory. The rapid increase in his business necessitated his seeking larger quarters and on this account Mr. Dresser decided to construct his own building.
